Dismissal & Voluntary

Welcome (or welcome home) to Holy Trinity Parish. In worship we unite with others, acknowledge God's holiness, hear God's word, offer prayer, and celebrate the sacraments. After worship we go out into the world opening hearts to God and doors to community.

If you are visiting today or if you've been worshipping here for a while and would like to deepen your connection to God and this community, please mark on your calendar our next Newcomer Classes October 1, 8, 15, & 22.

Our worship today did not happen by accident. Dozens of you contributed time this week preparing our space for worship, adding beauty, rehearsing music, greeting and assisting people as they arrive, reading God's word, and taking the sacrament to those who cannot be here today. Almost 200 households made a financial pledge this year to support our common life. If you would like to contribute either your time, talent, or money, jump right in! If you would like some help on how to start, email howcanihelp@htparish.com.

Psalm 69: 8-11, 18-20 read responsively by whole verse

8 Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, *
and shame has covered my face.

9 I have become a stranger to my own kindred, *
an alien to my mother's children.

10 Zeal for your house has eaten me up; *
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.

11 I humbled myself with fasting, *
but that was turned to my reproach.

18 "Answer me, O LORD, for your love is kind; *
in your great compassion, turn to me.

19 Hide not your face from your servant; *
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.

20 Draw near to me and redeem me; *
because of my enemies deliver me."

The Old Testament Lesson

Lector A reading from the book of Jeremiah.

O LORD, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me. For whenever I speak, I must cry out, I must shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the LORD has become for me a reproach and derision all day long. If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot. For I hear many whispering: "Terror is all around! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All my close friends are watching for me to stumble. "Perhaps he can be enticed, and we can prevail against him, and take our revenge on him." But the LORD is with me like a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail. They will be greatly shamed, for they will not succeed. Their eternal dishonor will never be forgotten. O LORD of hosts, you test the righteous, you see the heart and the mind; let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause. Sing to the LORD; praise the LORD! For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hands of evildoers.

The Epistle

Lector A Reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

The Gospel

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Jesus said to the twelve disciples, “A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household! So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. “Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven. “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.”

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

The Prayers of the People, Form IV, 10:30 a.m.
The Second Sunday After Pentecost—June 18, 2017

I invite all those wishing to come forward for special prayers to do so at this time.

*Don't wait for everyone to get to the rail.
After about 5 seconds, continue on.*

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray for Donald, our president; Nathan, our governor; Patti, our mayor; and Michael, our county executive officer.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer.

The Prayers of the People, Form IV, 10:30 a.m.
The Second Sunday After Pentecost—June 18, 2017

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. We pray for those who have been injured in the service of others, all those serving the common good, and for those now serving in the military, including Kari, Hawk, Daniel, Kester, Edward, Lance, Tom, Derick, Rob, Stovall, Logan, Brent, and Kate.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. We pray especially for Meg, Ellen, Teresa, Jerry, Sally, Betsy, Marilyn, Annie, Carol, Betty, Nichole, Craig, and Deborah.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer.

Pause while the priests pray for those who have come to the altar rail.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence Lord, in your mercy / Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.
